From the bright lights and beaches of Rio de Janeiro to the Jungles of the Amazon rain Forest, Brazil is alive with a diverse culture that offers exciting and distinctive flavours.

As the mega trend of 2014 – 2017, authentic Brazilian flavour has been a key component in our development here at Ungerer Limited. With both the Olympics and World Cup taking place in the coming years, it is no surprise that Brazilian flavours are expected to be seen in all areas of the food and drink industry.

Priding ourselves as being at the cutting edge of flavour trend forecasting, we are pleased to present you with this range of authentic Brazilian inspired flavours, tailored to work perfectly in the dessert industry.
